

USACLALS Report

In Fall of 2006 Santa Clara University hosted the 4th international conference of the US chapter of ACLALS. Through the good offices of Prof. Kanika Batra, Assistant Professor of English, and Professor Yuan Shu, Associate Professor and Director of the Comparative Literature Program at Texas Technical University in Lubbock, Texas, we have decided to join forces in Spring 2009 for our 5th international conference. This will be on the theme of "Borders and Migrancies," and will coincide with Texas Tech's well-established annual conference on Comparative Literatures.
